The baldy fat man with the repeating record of failure who presided over the collapse of the association of community councils refused to show any numbers in the accounts, created rifts when chairman of barrhead cc and drove the chamber of commerce into oblivion rears his ugly head again. He sold out Labour to join the SNP but ensured his wife stayed with Labour giving him access to Labour info. How Fletch can sit in the same room without punching him is a tribute to Fletch the politico. This councillor is in bed with the enaa secretary and it will all end in her tears as he always looks after only himself. She will take the fall and he will run back home to barrhead when the music stops. Grate scoop Newsline.

Buchanan better watch his back there is a fat cookoo in the snp nest.
