

Social media bad boy

Posted by Newsline - 17 Sep 2015 18:37

ERC have surpassed themselves this time with a major sense of humour breakdown.

Coming soon.....

=====

Re: Social media bad boy

Posted by Newsline - 19 Sep 2015 18:03

In addition to the foregoing and we question Caroline Innes's motives, we would have to question whether Tom is a customer, and as such can ERC impose a ban.

From the ERC policy document on unacceptable behaviour -

Tom has never engaged with the council by telephoning and being abusive - so why is he banned from phoning.?

Tom has never sent an abusive letter to the council - so why is he banned from writing?

=====

Re: Social media bad boy

Posted by Newsline - 19 Sep 2015 18:18

Similar to ERNHW Limited, Newsline has a number of people who input (report) and we asked Tom for his comments.

Tom said "My Avatar is a Silverback for a reason, and I can assure Caroline Innes that I will defend myself against this false allegation with all of my being and if issued with legal proceedings I will plead not guilty, attend court and force my accusers out of the shadows". "In my opinion these attacks on anyone who speaks their mind in East Renfrewshire must stop". "Certain elected members must remember that there was an election and not a coronation".

=====

Re: Social media bad boy

Posted by Gerry - 19 Sep 2015 20:20

If they took this to court every cllr and staff member that thought they had a problem with this site would have turn up and give evidence under oath and subject themselves to cross examination. The national press would love it.

=====

Re: Social media bad boy

Posted by Gloria - 19 Sep 2015 20:35

Bet I could guess who is pushing this crap just like the last time. We could crowd fund for a lawyer 🙄

=====

Re: Social media bad boy

Posted by Helen - 19 Sep 2015 20:47

This so wrong just because we are telling the truth ERC can't handle it and have to threaten and bully 😏

=====

Re: Social media bad boy

Posted by Ernhw Ltd - 19 Sep 2015 21:01

@Gloria it may we'll come that we need crowd funding but we have been contacted by a man who may be considering bank rolling us all the way to the court of session if required. We would like a stated case and having suffered due to the actions being conducted at present we should be eligible for financial compensation and the legal advice that we got on Friday from our solicitor was that no one can hide behind the council logo as a court could attribute liability to individuals.

=====